Students may cover more than one requirement with a single course. Two “early” (pre-1500) courses are required and can be fulfilled at the 100/200/300 or 400 level. Premodern courses will be noted in PAWS each semester. Students seeking certification to teach social studies at the secondary level are subject to additional professional requirements, including a semester of practice teaching. See below, History Major: Secondary Education.

Requirements for the Minor

Five course units minimum. Three courses must be 300 or 400 level and from various geographical categories: Africa, Asia, Eurasia, Europe, Latin America, Middle East, or United States. No more than one course at the 100-level. The 200 level foundational courses are reserved for History majors, though History minors may enroll if space is available. Occasionally a professor may admit a History minor to a Readings Seminar (HIS 450-464), if space is available.

Departmental Honors

Early in the spring semester, juniors may apply to write an Honors Thesis. Applications are due prior to the beginning of Fall registration; they must include a statement about a proposal topic and identify the Honors Thesis Advisor and support from that advisor. Honors Theses advisors will directly supervise students doing Honors Theses. Applicants will be notified of acceptance before Spring registration.

Program Entrance, Retention, and Exit Standards

Every major program at the College has set standards for allowing students to remain in that program, to transfer within the College from one program to another, and to graduate from a program. The following are the standards for History programs. Minimum grades are noted in parentheses:

- Retention in the program is based on the following performance standards in this “critical content course”: HIS 210 Craft of History (C) and performance at GPA of 2.0 or above in History courses.
- Graduation requires a GPA of 2.0, in History courses and overall, for students in History: Liberal Arts. Students seeking secondary education certification need a GPA of 2.75 overall.

History Major: Secondary Education

Professional courses needed to earn certification to teach secondary social studies are taken during the second, third and fourth years of college. An overview of the entire secondary-level teacher preparation sequence for students can be found in the section of this bulletin for the Department of Education Administration and Secondary Education.

Students planning to teach at the middle or high school level should consult with their advisor in planning their academic program. These plans should take into account requirements for: the major, liberal learning, professional courses, and state certification. To be retained in the program, a student must earn at least a 2.5 cumulative grade point average before enrolling in the junior year education sequence. The student must establish a minimum 2.75 GPA in order to be allowed to student teach.

Candidates for a teacher-education certificate must establish a minimum 2.75 GPA in order to be allowed to student teach. Candidates for a teacher-education certificate must have a 2.75 or higher cumulative grade point average to successfully complete their teacher education program. They also must meet the state hygiene/physiology requirement, the state Harassment, Intimidation, and Bullying Prevention (HIB) training certificate requirement, and pass the appropriate Praxis examination. Teacher-education candidates will receive a “certificate of eligibility with advanced standing” which requires a candidate to be provisionally certified for his or her first year of teaching. After one year of successful teaching, the candidate is eligible for a permanent certificate.
